game—unless Pastor Doug has a message that can save my life, I mumbled. Having not watched online Amazing Facts broadcasts for some time, my eyes caught the header on my screen for his Mighty Men of God series. I clicked on it, forgetting all about my game. I was particularly moved when he talked about David standing his ground against such formidable forces to defend a grain field, making the connection to men standing strong for God's principles. I feel reinvigorated to stand my ground for God, to sit still no longer, to fight for what I believe." John, Iowa

THE PRESIDENT'S PERSPECTIVE

PASTOR DOUG BATCHELOR

Nowhere to Hide!

"You have been ... a refuge from the storm."—Isaiah 25:4

Cindy Sasnett was petrified.

A tornado was barreling toward her home in Moore, Oklahoma. As she ran from room to room, trying to decide where to hide herself and her two grandchildren, she lamented not building that storm shelter. What were we thinking?

Cindy and her husband had talked often about putting in a storm shelter after devastating tornadoes had struck their city more than once in years past. But they just kept putting it off. Now, as she stood in a hall closet praying, a still, small voice told her, "Go."

So the fifty-year-old grandmother hastily strapped her two grandkids in car seats while strong winds whipped dangerous debris into the air. One of the kids looked into the sky and said, "Look! Tornado!" Cindy slammed the SUV into gear and raced up the street.

As she drove away, she called her husband and he, while watching the path of the tornado on TV, carefully guided her away from the mile-wide monster. When the storm had passed, she turned around and, with a sense of foreboding, headed back home. After driving through streets strewn with debris, she got back to the house—where she discovered every room she had thought to hide in was demolished.

The Bible predicts that before Jesus comes, a different kind of storm will make even the largest tornado feel like a flutter in the breeze. As I read the headlines, it seems that we're beginning to see signs of this chaos. It is my prayer that you, our friends, our families, and I are all prepared for that great day of the Lord—just as together, as a team, we work to tell others the good news of Jesus' soon return and help carefully guide them into a relationship with Him. "A man will be as a hiding place from the wind, and a cover from the tempest" (Isaiah 32:2).

In this issue of Inside Report, we'll look at what the Bible says about the only storm shelter that will protect us just before Christ returns. I also hope you'll find plenty of inspiration and resources within to help grow your faith and to reach others with God's saving end-time message. Thank you for your friendship, and God bless you.

A STORM SHELTER

by Pastor Doug Batchelor

An Amazing Fact: On May 20, 2013, a terrifying tornado tore through Moore, Oklahoma, with peak winds reaching over 200 MPH. On the ground for thirty-nine minutes, it chewed up a path 1.3 miles wide and seventeen miles long, killing twenty-four people and injuring 377. Only about 10 percent of homes in Moore had storm shelters, and only two of the city's thirty-one schools. When the Plaza Towers Elementary School took a direct hit, seven children died.

If you want to strike up a conversation with a stranger, one of the easiest ways is to talk about the weather—especially the severe kind. Hazardous weather impacts tens of thousands of lives across the United States each year—floods, lightning strikes, hurricanes, blizzards, and tornadoes.

Tornadoes alone injure an average of 1,500 people each year and cause eighty deaths. Large twisters can lift homes off their foundations, uproot trees, demolish large buildings, and hurl vehicles hundreds of yards. The states with the highest number of EF5 tornadoes, the most powerful kind, include Alabama and Oklahoma, with an average of seven per year.

The safest place to be when a tornado strikes is in a storm shelter that provides refuge from the extreme wind and flying debris. Most storm shelters are underground bunkers, but some above-ground safe rooms are also used. According to FEMA, personal emergency planning and storm shelters save at least ten thousand lives each year.

Another Storm Is Coming

A growing fear among many is of a coming storm beyond anything imaginable. Some doomsday prophets predict nuclear holocaust that only preppers hiding in underground bunkers will survive. Others anticipate a breakdown in technology that will allow total anarchy to prevail.

Some businesses are capitalizing on these apocalyptic fears by selling specialty bunkers for a high price. These bomb-proof underground condos can house up to 1,000 people for over a year and are hidden beneath the prairies of the Midwest. They are selling like hotcakes.

Here is how one company is motivating some to buy into their survival shelters:

"We have all heard the prophecies of the 'End Times.' The Bible warns of it. Nostradamus foresaw it ... and prophets throughout the ages all warn of the same epic global catastrophes. ... We have been warned of Armageddon, Nibiru/Planet X, a sudden pole shift, future plagues, a solar kill shot, a super volcanic eruption. ... We don't know what, when, or where catastrophe will happen; but whether we want to believe it or not, it likely will. It is only a matter of time. We cannot deny that we are on the cusp of an increase in number and magnitude of events that may, in the twinkling of an eye, change the world, as we know it. ... Millions will perish, or worse yet, struggle to survive as victims. ... What will you do? Will you be a victim or a survivor? Vivos is your solution to ride out and survive these potential catastrophes."

But will a bunker protect you from the biblical apocalypse? John the Baptist said, "Brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?" (Luke 3:7). In other words, "You can run, but you can't hide from the Second Coming!"

The Bible speaks of a day when God's wrath will be "poured out full strength"

(Revelation 14:10). Whether you are in the International Space Station or in the deepest shelter under a mountain, you cannot seclude yourself from the Day of the Lord. Another prophet described the fruitless efforts of trying to escape on that day: "It will be as though a man fled from a lion, and a bear met him!" (Amos 5:19).

Still, the Lord instructs us to hide—for a time. "My people, enter your chambers, and shut your doors behind you; hide yourself, as it were, for a little moment, until the indignation is past" (Isaiah 26:20). What are we to make of this?

Wise Planning

Christians can feel conflicted about preparing for the time of the end. We want to trust the Lord, but we also want to prepare in a pragmatic way. What should we do with our savings? Where should we live? Some have sold their city homes and moved to the country—only to find that they could not make a living and had to move back to the city.

A "bunker" mentality has developed among some Christians that drives them to run for cover like prairie dogs—they are always diving underground, fearing the worst from every breaking news event. I think the devil likes to spook us about the end of time so that we will panic and abandon God's work. That's why, before making any drastic changes, we need to pray for God's guidance.

At the same time, we should plan wisely for the time of the end. It's always good to carefully invest our money for emergencies, but we shouldn't hoard our funds. And if you are a city dweller, having some land in the country as a potential retreat in a national crisis isn't a bad idea, but don't quit your job and run for the hills on a whim after reading a scary news story. If God hasn't opened a door for you, He may want to use you right where you are.

The story of Nehemiah gives us balance on living during challenging times. When God called Nehemiah to rebuild the walls of Jerusalem, he was met by severe opposition. The last thing the devil wanted him to do was build up the capital city as a beacon for God's kingdom. The Israelites' neighbors even threatened them with war.

At one critical point, Nehemiah learned that someone was planning his assassination and that he was advised to go into hiding. But Nehemiah refused to budge, believing God had miraculously opened a door for him to rally the people to rebuild Jerusalem. (See Nehemiah 6:11.) Thus, it was not God's will that his servant should run away and hide in a bunker.

When the apostle Paul was warned not to go to Jerusalem for the fear of prison and persecution that awaited him, he replied, "I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus" (Acts 21:13). He risked everything to make evangelism a priority.

We are still free to worship and proclaim God's truth.

Satan delights in getting Christians to seclude themselves to save their own hides, losing their influence as salt and light in the world. Don't fall for his trap!

A Time to Flee

There will come a time when we must seek shelter, however. Jesus warned His followers of the coming destruction of Jerusalem: "When you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is near. Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains" (Luke 21:20, 21). He added, "Let him who is on the housetop not go down to take anything out of his house" (Matthew 24:17). It was like the advice angels gave Lot when fleeing from Sodom: "Escape for your life! Do not look behind you" (Genesis 19:17).

A time is coming when Christians living today must flee from society. What will be our signal to run? When the secular powers "surround" God's people with religious laws and remove our freedom to worship.

That time has not yet come. And until then, Christians should not cry wolf. We are still free to worship and proclaim God's truth. Like Nehemiah and Paul, we should be careful to not allow the devil to frighten us into withdrawing from the work God has placed before us. Satan knows that now is the best time for Christians to witness for Jesus. People are living in fear and searching for answers. This is not the time to hide like gophers in an underground bunker.

After his triumphant victory on Mount Carmel, Elijah was spooked by a threatening message from Jezebel. Without consulting the Lord and thinking his only priority was to save himself, he fled into the wilderness. But God sent him back into Israel to carry on the revival. When Christians think about saving themselves, they not only misrepresent the sacrificial life of Jesus but also lose a giant chance to witness. Such self-centered behavior is a catastrophic waste of evangelistic opportunity. When the people of the world are searching for safety from the coming storm, we need to be there to point them to Christ, the only refuge that will protect them in the end. We can't do that if we're hiding in a bunker.

We Have Shelter

When the Israelites were slaves in Egypt, Moses demanded that Pharaoh let God's people go. When the king stubbornly refused, the plagues began to fall, but God protected the Hebrew people through their storm.

The last plague to hit Egypt was the death of the firstborn. God explained that this tragic, frightening plague must come before His people would be delivered—and

The Three Angels in China

Questions are pouring in to the Chinese Amazing Facts website.

China is an enormous country with a population of nearly 1.4 billion souls—four times that of the United States. More people speak Mandarin as their first language than any other language.

Of course, God deeply loves the many diverse people of China, which is why Amazing Facts is reaching out to them and inviting them to the eternal kingdom in new ways. While China is considered home to some of the world's oldest civilizations, no country has been modernizing at a quicker pace over the last twenty years. By the Lord's grace, this increase in technology is allowing the Holy Spirit to touch hearts in China with the everlasting gospel in new and exciting ways through Amazing Facts.

Answering Questions

Through our Chinese website, the good news is spreading across East Asia. Our small but dedicated team is working constantly to translate resources into Mandarin so that more people can watch Pastor Doug's life-changing sermons, read truth-filled Study Guides and magazines, watch DVDs, and download booklets in their own language. The most common request at our Chinese website is for more resources like these.

One of the most successful ways to witness has come through developing friendships with online contacts. Seekers write to ask our team about the Bible. With doubts to be cleared up, these precious souls must be nurtured step by step. Many next ask where they might find a local Sabbath-keeping church, and thousands have since become “friends” and “followers” with Amazing Facts through social networking sites popular in the region.

Indeed, the number of inquiries is so great that our team can barely keep up! And with a new mobile app being developed, we’re expecting even more queries. That means the most urgent need is for additional workers to follow up with website and social networking seekers.

But we believe the investment is worth it—and you will too—once you read these powerful stories of changed lives in China!

Delivered from a Vicious Cycle of Sin

Mr. Wang read the Bible years ago, but he never really got to know God. As a migrant worker, his main interest was always making money. “After work,” he explains, “I watched movies and played computer games. I was also addicted to movies, including X-rated films. I tried to give them up many times but failed. It was a vicious cycle.”

“One day,” he remembers, “I couldn’t find a movie I had downloaded. So I went back online to find it again.” While searching he came across the Amazing Facts documentary, Revelation: The Bride, the Beast & Babylon. He shares, “I loved it!” It was so interesting that he found the Chinese Amazing Facts website and watched another series on the Ten Commandments.

He later received an email from the Amazing Facts website inviting him to ask questions. “I was so excited! I sent many questions to them, and they answered them all.”

Soon Mr. Wang felt he had to make a decision to abandon his bad habits and follow Jesus. He knelt down and prayed to God for help. We are pleased to report that the Lord has given him the strength and he has since given up these destructive habits and now lives in total peace. Mr. Wang next contacted the Amazing Facts website to ask for the location of a Sabbath-keeping church. The following Sabbath he was able to find a church close to his home, and today his trust in the Lord is growing stronger through the resources you’ve made possible at Amazing Facts.

Never Forsaken

Throughout her young life, Ms. Zhao came to believe that God was a tyrant who loved to torture sinners in hell forever. She even felt that He had forsaken her because of her sinful life. It led her to wonder if there was any purpose in living. “I tried a dozen times to read the Bible, but I could never make sense of it.” She asked herself, “What do I believe? Where is God’s love? If we are all destined for hell, why not just get it over with?” Tragically, she made the decision to take her own life.

“At this exact time,” she says, “my pastor brought me a video called Cosmic Conflict. I had

The NEW Amazing Facts Study Guides

Same Powerful Lessons, Updated and Improved!

The new Amazing Facts Bible Study Guides are now available.

One of the most impactful, trusted Amazing Facts resources is our set of 27 classic Study Guides. Tens of thousands have been blessed by these powerful evangelistic lessons for nearly 50 years. But in order to reach new generations with Bible truth, we have updated every graphic and page with fresh, appealing images that better speak to today's audiences.

Even better, in some cases, the language is clearer and crisper, and illustrations and examples are now current. But don't worry—the lesson numbers and topics haven't changed!

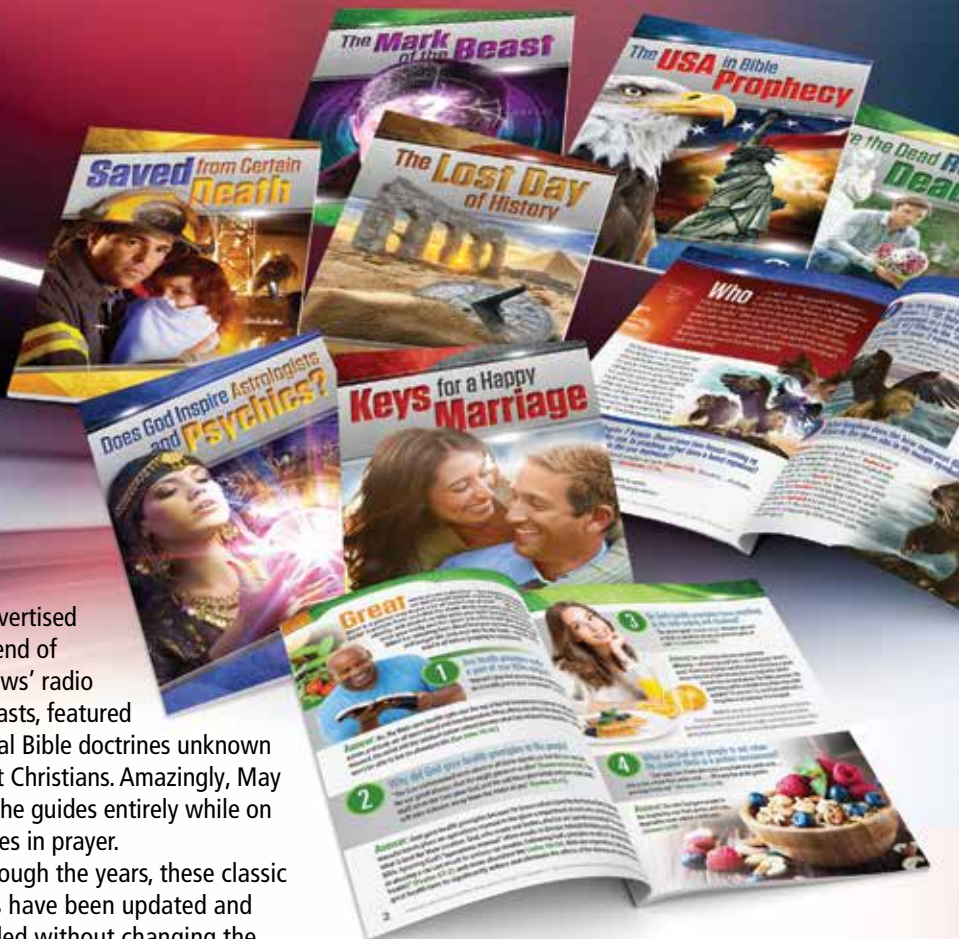

Our goal was to breathe new life into a beloved witnessing resource. Each Study Guide has been carefully reviewed by a team of pastors, evangelists, and editors to provide the clearest presentation of Bible truth. So you can still count on sharing the unchanging truths of God's Word in a way that will draw seekers into a thorough study of vital last-day teachings.

Pastor Doug shares, "Our challenge in modernizing these Study Guides was how to update something that has been so successful—without losing what makes it successful. I think we have beautifully achieved that goal by making the lessons fresh but retaining their robust, direct nature." We also praise God that Amazing Facts was able to use these new Study Guides for Pastor Doug's Prophecy Encounter seminar in February. They have been well received by churches and Bible workers around the country.

Study Guide Beginnings

It all began in 1967, when Amazing Facts co-founder Bill May developed a unique set of Bible lessons called "Information Folders." These 10 studies, first advertised at the end of Joe Crews' radio broadcasts, featured essential Bible doctrines unknown to most Christians. Amazingly, May wrote the guides entirely while on his knees in prayer.

Through the years, these classic lessons have been updated and expanded without changing the essential Bible truths that must be lifted up before the world. Thousands of seekers around the globe have been led to Christ through them, and churches around the world continue to run their own Bible schools with these lifesaving lessons.

Pastor Jëan Ross, vice president of evangelism at Amazing Facts, says, "The power of these lessons is in taking timeless truth and presenting it in a practical way. These new lessons will continue to impact people's lives in powerful ways. The seeds of truth in Amazing Facts Bible Study Guides, watered by the Holy Spirit, will spring up sturdy, fruit-bearing Christians."

So if you are a pastor, evangelist, Bible worker, personal ministries leader, or outreach coordinator, now is the time to take a fresh look at our Study Guides and stock up so you can prepare more people for baptism and the soon coming of Jesus!

The Bible Bus

God is using a recreational vehicle for re-creation

Your Amazing Facts evangelists travel all over the United States and Canada conducting prophecy seminars, living out of a suitcase from January to December. These high-energy speakers love sharing Bible truth with eager audiences and consider this mobile lifestyle a privilege, but it can also be challenging for young families.

"Our work keeps my wife Jenni and me on the road most of the year, and with the need for stability for our daughter and our new son, we considered a recreational vehicle for full-time living," says evangelist Wyatt Allen.

Last year, inspired by the Holy Spirit's prompting, Wyatt started looking at RVs to make life more comfortable for his growing, on-the-go family. In September 2015, he had been introduced to a generous Amazing Facts supporter who wanted his twenty-year-old motorhome used only for ministry and not sold for cash. By June of 2016, the RV was prepped and ready to roll for outreach.

Wyatt says, "It was a direct answer to prayer!"

It reminded the Allens of the Bible promise, "It shall come to pass that before they call, I will answer; and while they are still speaking, I will hear" (Isaiah 65:24). They could see God's hand moving from the very beginning. Miracle after miracle, including their trip to pick up the RV, getting the repairs and upgrades (and paid for by divinely timed contributions) and their thousands of miles of ministry in the RV already—all have come through His amazing providence.

Ever since obtaining their forty-foot home, Wyatt, Jenni, and their children have driven from California to Texas—and back—ministering to those they've met and presenting God's love and end-time truths in Nevada, Missouri, Minnesota, Arizona, Oklahoma, and Alabama. Indeed, they are going the "extra mile" for Jesus.

The Bible Bus a Witness

Soon after picking up the RV, Wyatt and Jenni decided their new home and ministry office needed a suitable name. "Our daughter, Purity, helped us name it. When we suggested the name 'Bible Bus,' she said it with such joy that it stuck," explains Wyatt.

And the name is fitting. The RV's original owner had it painted with the Amazing Facts and BibleUniverse.com logos so that everywhere he went, it would be a witness for the Lord. The Allens are discovering this to be true on a daily basis.

The Allens quickly realized the blessing of driving a "rolling billboard." Lots of people wave and honk their support as they go by. They even got a thumbs-up from a group of bikers.

One day, an email signed by "AJ" came into Amazing Facts' headquarters: "I saw the Amazing Facts RV on Route 45S while on my way to the Woodlands. I have recently begun watching Pastor Batchelor's sermons and they have been a blessing in my life!

I've been sharing YouTube videos with a few friends in hopes they too can be blessed."

"We clearly see now how the Bible Bus is both a blessing as a home for ministry," says Wyatt, "and as a way to encourage people to look up Bible-based websites filled with truth for these last days! We are stocked with lots of Amazing Facts' Bible study materials to give away as we travel the country."

Road Warriors for Christ

"We have had so many encouraging encounters," says Wyatt. "At a gas station stop just a few hours after obtaining the RV, Jenni was asked if she had a business card for the website painted on the motorhome. Another time a lady knocked on our door asking about our ministry. She was a candidate for U.S. Congress and was staying in an RV near us during our meetings in Houston. As busy as she was, she was very interested in our upcoming seminar and promised to watch our live stream and read the materials we gave her.

"When I invited a seminar attendee in Houston over to our place, he hesitated; but when I told him it was just an RV, he got excited. He had been living in a fifth-wheel trailer for the last six years and felt an immediate kinship. We had a great study and he told me that he knew God was calling him to be part of the last-day church.

"I was even blessed to have a short conversation with a tollbooth lady in Oklahoma. As I pulled up she asked me about Amazing Facts. I was able to encourage her to go to the website and we gave her some literature that she was happy to receive."

At a stop in a state park in Oklahoma, they picked the very first site inside the gates. Lots of people got to see the signs as they entered and exited. This has truly expanded Amazing Facts' ministry in ways no one could have imagined. After just a few days, they had close to a dozen positive encounters with their fellow campers.

During one trip, Wyatt counted the cars that passed them on the interstate. After just two minutes he counted more than forty! "Can you imagine how many people that is per hour? Per day? Of course, with those huge logos on the side and back, I want to drive extra carefully, keeping in mind that we represent the Bible and Christianity," Wyatt shares.

New Meaning for "RV"

While the Allens enjoy the conveniences of their "recreational" vehicle; in God's hands it is becoming a "re-creation-al" vehicle. As Wyatt and Jenni drive the highways and byways of North America, presenting Amazing Facts seminars and distributing life-changing resources, they are seeing the Holy Spirit begin the re-creation process in the hundreds of people they meet.

"We have given away a lot of literature, CDs, and DVDs that have been well received," says Wyatt. "The Amazing Facts logo on the side of the RV piques interest and adds credibility. I just love how it makes us extra-approachable. We've had people come up to us asking for Bibles, literature, business cards, and for more information on Amazing Facts."

Is Pastor Doug Here?

"One time, while staying in a Walmart parking lot, we got a knock at the door. It was some church ladies who love Amazing Facts," says Wyatt. "They were a little disappointed that Pastor Doug Batchelor wasn't on board but happy to learn about the work we were doing. They prayed a special prayer of blessing for us and our ministry and went on their way."

As these divine appointments and ministry opportunities continue to add up, please pray for Wyatt, Jenni, and their children as they tour the country in their new home—the Bible Bus re-creation-al vehicle—and share the three angels' messages of Revelation 14!

NEWS to NOTE

Amazing Facts on USA Network and More

The Lord opened a huge evangelistic opportunity for Amazing Facts to be on one of the largest channels in North America—the USA Network. It's seen in nearly 93 million homes in America. Watch us Sundays at 7:00am and invite your friends. Also, we are excited that we have begun airing our programs on the Inspiration Channel every Sunday at 9:00am ET, reaching an additional 81 million households. Thank you for helping us share God's last-day message in more places than ever before. It's working!

Roku App Updated

Amazing Facts has updated our Roku channel by expanding on-demand Bible presentations, adding hundreds of Christ-centered programs. We are also excited to announce that AFTV is now streaming in HD! Once you get a Roku streaming box, watching Amazing Facts TV is free. Find out more at Roku.com.

Pastor Doug Down Under

From March 24 to April 4, Pastor Doug will be traveling to Australia to conduct revival and evangelism meetings, called "Global Change and the Individual" in this nation ensnared by secularism. Then he will travel to Papua New Guinea with the Amazing Facts team for evangelistic and revival meetings at Mount Hagen, where tens of thousands are expected to attend. Thank you for helping us lift up God's church and the work of evangelism in nations all over the world.

A Faithful Worker Retires

While we will surely miss him, we're pleased to announce the retirement of Dr. Richard Marker. Since 2011, Richard has served faithfully as a ministry partner relations representative for Amazing Facts. He retired at the end of 2016 after a long and distinguished career serving in the church, including as conference president. Richard and his wife Bonnie have a daughter, Heather, and two grandchildren who live in the Seattle area. We know the Lord has grown His kingdom through Richard's faithful service!

Website News

Two of our most popular websites have recently undergone huge makeovers. BibleUniverse.com and GhostTruth.com have been redesigned and contain even more articles and videos sharing Bible truth. BibleUniverse.com debuted in September 2000 and is one of our most popular truth-sharing websites. We also launched RaptureTruth.com, a new site geared for those sorting out the false "Left Behind" teaching deceiving many churches. Be sure to let seeking friends and family know!

Happy Birthday!

Lillian Johnson, a long-time, faithful volunteer at Amazing Facts, celebrated her 90th birthday with family, friends, and Pastor Doug!

Lillian started helping out in our Bible school back in 1998 and retired at the end of 2016. Carolyn Moxley, Bible school director, shares, "Lillian always has a positive outlook and is a joy to be around. We miss her!"

HANDING OUT HACKSAW

It's not very often that the world's eyes are drawn to the life of a Sabbath keeper. But last November, with the release of Mel Gibson's award-winning film Hacksaw Ridge, millions turned their attention to a courageous conscientious objector who won a Congressional Medal of Honor for his bravery in saving lives during World War II.

Amazing Facts could not pass up the opportunity to direct curious observers to the faith of Desmond Doss. Along with our friends at Remnant Publications, Doug Batchelor created a unique sharing book, Hero of Hacksaw Ridge, which introduces Doss' extraordinary testimony and our church's unique religious beliefs.

The book was an evangelistic success! We created an online campaign that put more than 50,000 copies into the hands of curious seekers. Even better, ministry friends purchased one hundred thousand more and handed them out—often at theaters showing the film.

A TEAM EFFORT

Stories of giving away the book have come in from around the country and the world. Most found theater managers open to having the book distributed in their venue. Stefania and her family, ministry friends in Idaho, obtained permission from their local cinema to pass out at least fifty books to patrons when they purchased a ticket for the film.

Jeff, an Amazing Facts staff member, bought a case of one hundred books and brought them to a local theater. He and his wife Ana carried in a handful and showed them to the theater manager who was happy to let them distribute the books. After Jeff set a few out on a counter, he discovered that people were ignoring them. So he prayed about what to do. It was then Jeff sensed the Lord impressing him to stand in front of the crowded theater and tell people about the book. He then invited people to come to him for a free copy after the movie.

When the film ended, Jeff was swamped with requests. People surrounded him wanting a free copy.

Someone asked a question about Doss' faith and Jeff answered it. Then another person asked a question—and another! For nearly an hour Jeff answered questions and shared his testimony with a group of about thirty people before leaving the theater.

"I have only one regret," Jeff admits. "I should have brought two hundred books!"

Army of Volunteers!

AROUND THE WORLD

Kayla wrote to let us know that when some families at her church in Chippewa Valley, Wisconsin, saw a 3ABN program with Doug Batchelor featuring the Hacksaw sharing book, they did not want to let the opportunity for outreach slip away. Individuals enthusiastically donated to buy fourteen cases of books, and thirty-two members, both adults and youth, handed out a total of 1,162 Hacksaw books at forty-five movie showings during November and December.

Furthermore, as patrons were offered the book, they were also given the opportunity to donate to a local charity that houses and assists homeless veterans. By the time the project ended, almost $3,200 had been raised. Members said they thoroughly enjoyed themselves and appreciated the opportunity to work together, talk with moviegoers, and give away books. The theater owners were so pleased with the project, they even hosted a pizza party for everyone when it was all done.

Finally, Colin, who lives in the United Kingdom, wrote us to say, "We bought a box of Hacksaw Ridge books last December, but the film has only just been released in the UK. Wow! My wife and I went to the cinema to give away the books and what a response—even the staff wanted copies! An excellent evangelistic tool; please pray for the seeds that have been sown. Thank you."

Thank you for helping to make our Hacksaw Ridge outreach campaign a stunning success. We pray that many hearts have been directed heavenward and to God's end-time church!

that there was only one way for them to be sheltered during this judgment.

The Passover was given as a sign of God's saving power. After a lamb without blemish was slain, its blood was placed on the "two doorposts and on the lintel of the houses" (Exodus 12:7). Then, during the meal, "The LORD will pass through to strike the Egyptians; and when He sees the blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, the LORD will pass over the door and not allow the destroyer to come into your houses to strike you" (verse 23).

The experiences of ancient Israel are a foretaste of God's protection for spiritual Israel—the church today. Revelation describes plagues befalling the earth. Just as the Israelites were, God's people will be shielded from the "bowls of the wrath" (Revelation 16:1) and "come out of the great tribulation" because they have "washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb" (7:14). Through the blood of Christ, we can be immunized from the seven last plagues and sheltered from the angel of death.

Just as the Hebrews stood under the blood of the lamb within their homes, we must stand under the blood of Christ. If the Israelites wandered out of their homes, away from the shelter of God's care, they were overtaken by the plague. But in the bunker of the Lord, they had nothing to fear. Neither do you!

Sheltered in the Ark

Perhaps the most famous Bible bunker story is that of the sheltering ark of Noah, in which he and his family could hide from the greatest storm that has ever struck the earth. I imagine that storm had it all—volcanic eruptions, earthquakes, howling winds, driving rain, crashing lightning and thunder. "He destroyed all living things which were on the face of the ground: both man and cattle. ... Only Noah and those who were with him in the ark remained alive" (Genesis 7:23). It was the storm of the ages!

We can hardly imagine the horrible intensity that killed every living thing. The catastrophic tsunamis in our day simply don't compare with what Noah and his family experienced. How could a wooden boat protect those seven from the explosive forces of nature that shifted the foundations of the earth? It took more than pitch and wood to provide a stormproof shelter; we know it took God's miraculous care.

This story will be repeated. "As the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be" (Matthew 24:37). Someday the world will be destroyed by the power of His coming. Is there a stormproof shelter that will protect you from that day? Nothing made by humans will, as "the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up" (2 Peter 3:10).

Thus, for the Christian, safety is not found in a place, but in a person—Jesus Christ. I like the way Isaiah describes it: Christ "will be as a hiding place from the wind, and a cover from the tempest, as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land" (Isaiah 32:2). We find our ultimate storm shelter by hiding in Jesus.

King David put it this way: "Hear my cry, O God; attend to my prayer. From the end of the earth I will cry to You, when my heart is overwhelmed; lead me to the rock that is higher than I. For You have been a shelter for me, a strong tower from the enemy. I will abide in Your tabernacle forever; I will trust in the shelter of Your wings" (Psalm 61:1–4).

Corrie ten Boom, a Dutch Christian who survived the Holocaust of World War II, found Christ as her protector while struggling to survive with her sister Betsie in a Nazi concentration camp. Her famous book, The Hiding Place, was named after one of her favorite Bible verses: "You are my hiding place and my shield; I hope in Your word" (Psalm 119:114). During the war, Corrie once asked her sister if they could ever feel safe again. Betsie, who would die in the Ravensbrück Concentration Camp just two days before liberation, replied, "The safest place in the world is to be in the center of God's will."

Just before Christ returns, when the world is in upheaval and Satan's forces are bent on destroying all of God's people, you do not need to be afraid. Your most secure storm shelter will be doing God's will. Do not run and hide before that time. We have an important work to do in guiding fearful people to the safe arms of Jesus.

Let's prepare for the coming storms by standing under the blood of the Lamb!

never heard a message like it before. I knew nothing about God's love and the freedom He gives me to choose." From that moment on, Ms. Zhao searched the Internet for Pastor Doug's videos and discovered our Chinese-language website. When she learned about the Bible Sabbath, she talked with her pastor, who told her, "Stop watching those videos!" Yet no one could point out any errors in the teaching. So last December, Ms. Zhao contacted Amazing Facts and found a local Sabbath-keeping church. "I have learned a lot of truth," she shares joyfully. "God never forsook me. He has been leading me with His great love through all these experiences. His love is always with me! Thank you God and Amazing Facts!"

What's Next?

Amazing Facts is moving forward on several fronts in China. New sermons are continually being dubbed into Mandarin, two new translators are being trained, several pocketbook sermons are being translated, and hundreds of thousands of visits are being made to our website. The number of Bible school students and graduates continues to climb.

The Amazing Facts team in China knows of fifty-six people who have joined a Sabbath-keeping church in 2016 as a result of their work. Another twenty-six are currently preparing for baptism. We know there are also many thousands more who don't reach out to share their testimonies with us after experiencing a life change. But from the number of contacts being made, we know God is doing a mighty work.

Our onsite coordinator shares, "God knows all of our challenges and needs, but He expects us to pray. Please join us in prayer that we might hear His voice—and thank you for giving to this work."

Names have been changed and details of work are limited due to the sensitive nature of sharing the gospel in China. Please keep praying for our team!

BIBLE ANSWERS

WITH DOUG BATCHELOR

Q. What is the battle of Armageddon all about?

"They gathered them together to the place called in Hebrew, Armageddon."

—Revelation 16:16

A. The word "Armageddon" is something of a mystery, appearing only in this verse and nowhere else in Greek literature. It has been variously translated. For instance, it is har-megiddon, "the mount of the assembly;" or chormah gedehon, "the destruction of their army."

It is often thought that Armageddon harkens back to the many battles in Israel's history centering around the mountain of Megiddo. This is also the same location where Gideon, the fifth judge of Israel, and his outnumbered army experienced a miraculous victory against a confederacy of three enemies.

It is also helpful to know the word "Gideon" means "tree feller," "lumberjack," or "one who cuts to pieces." Several times in the story God speaks to Gideon, and that phrase spoken in Hebrew is translated 'amar gid'on or aw-mar'ghid-ohn' (Judges 7:7). This battle in Megiddo led by Gideon reminds us of a time when God's people were facing extermination, but the Lord fought for them and they experienced total victory. (See 2 Chronicles 20.)

Contrary to what most people believe, the battle of Armageddon is not a typical war between political powers—such as Russia, China, and Israel. Instead, I believe it is the final battle between Christ and Satan and their respective followers.

The first phase of Armageddon is detailed in Revelation 12:17, when the dragon makes war with the woman: "The dragon was enraged with the woman, and he went to make war with the rest of her offspring, who keep the commandments of God."

I believe that Satan will someday soon impersonate Christ and encourage the world to worship the beast. Revelation reveals several ways in which he will deceive the world through false representations.

The apostle Paul warned us many times not to be deceived (1 Corinthians 3:18; Ephesians 5:6). Such preparation for Armageddon, to stand firm in the face of deception, needs to take place within our hearts now, not when the final events are already in full swing.

Thoughts of Armageddon should really focus us on a relationship with the Savior. Tanks, guns, or a bunker stocked with food will not protect us. We need to be clothed in the armor of Jesus' righteousness. Then we will prevail even in the face of a death decree given to those who keep God's commandments.
