

O Praise Ye the Lord

Henry W. Baker

Charles H. H. Parry

1. O      praise      ye      the      Lord!      Praise      Him      in      the      height;
 2. O      praise      ye      the      Lord!      Praise      Him      up      on      earth;
 3. O      praise      ye      the      Lord!      Praise      Him      that      -      give      sound;
 4. O      praise      ye      the      Lord!      Thanks      -      giv      ing      and      song

Re - joice      in      His      word,      Ye      an      gels      of      of      light;
 In      tune      ful      ac - cord:      Ye      sons      of      new      birth;
 Each      ju - bi - lant      out - cord:      Re - ech - o      of      a - round;
 To      Him      be      poured      All      a - ges      a      long:

Ye      hea - vens,      a      dore      Him      By      whom      ye      were      made,
 Praise      Him      who      hath      brought      you      His      grace      from      a      -      bove,
 Loud      or - gans      His      glo - ry      Forth      tell      in      deep      tone,
 For      love      in      cre - a - tion,      For      hea - ven      re - stored.

F7      D7      Gm      D      Gm      Cm7      Bb      F7      Bb

And      wor - ship      be - fore      Him,      In      bright - ness      ar - rayed.
 Praise      Him      who      hath      taught      you      To      sing      of      His      love.
 And      sweet      harp,      the      sto - ry      Of      what      He      hath      done.
 For      grace      of      sal - va - tion,      O      praise      ye      the      Lord!