

Granite Bay SDA Church Tuition Assistance Application Policy

Purpose:

- To assist in providing a Christian education to eligible students from Granite Bay SDA Church who may otherwise not receive a Christian education due to financial hardship.

Other Objectives:

- Teach the student to appreciate the financial sacrifices others will be making to support him/her through his/her Christian education.
- Provide opportunity for the student to develop good work ethic.
- Help the student to understand the basic principles of financial responsibility.

Eligibility:

1. The student, parent or guardian must be a participating member of the Granite Bay SDA Church in good and regular standing. New members transferring into the Granite Bay SDA Church must be fully participating for at least six months before receiving aid. Full participation includes regular giving of tithe and offering and regular attendance at church services and activities.
2. Satisfactory participation will be determined by the Tuition Assistance Committee.
3. Student(s) must attend a K-12 Seventh Day Adventist educational institution.
4. Preference will be given to high school students who hold a summer job, which contributes earnings to their tuition. Evidence of work must be submitted.
5. Preference will be given to students of any age who demonstrate a spirit of resourcefulness and industriousness by holding some sort of part time job during the school year and the summer.
6. Family household annual gross income must be less than $80,000.
7. Subsidy is dependent upon available assistance funds as of June 30.
8. The complete application deadline for financial assistance in the 2020-2021 school year is April 30, 2020. Any applications that are submitted after the deadline and after the tuition subsidy committee meets to determine application eligibility are evaluated on a case by case basis, if there are any student tuition assistant funds remaining that have not been allocated for the school year.

Application Process:

1. Completed application (next two pages)
2. Include a copy of previous years W-2 (one for each parent that is working)
3. Include any other relevant documentation
4. Mail to:

Granite Bay SDA Church Tuition Assistance
PO Box 910, Rocklin, CA 95677

Applications may also be hand delivered to one of the Granite Bay Church Pastors.

Please Note:

- Incomplete applications will not be considered by the committee.
- Submission of this application does not guarantee tuition assistance will be granted.
